

EUNI TRAINING INSTITUTE

Country of Origin Eligibility to the full Scholarship Impact Program

Aim

The overall aim of the EUNI Scholarship Impact program is to contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals in education. EUNI aims at targeting the learning deficit by enabling students to take part in full academic programs via e-Learning. EUNI seeks to create equitable access to tuition free qualitative tertiary education in countries where it does not exist.

Target group

The EUNI scholarship impact program is restricted to students who are nationals and currently reside and are physically present in their home country listed below or are refugees in another country and can prove their status. Students from non-listed countries will be eligible if they are able to demonstrate achievement and determination in the face of personal challenges or great adversity.

The Impact Program is operated in an e-learning online format with live webinars. Students will have the option to travel to the campus during campus weeks each term.

How to apply

Application for the EUNI Scholarship Impact Program takes place as announced. For each deadline, EUNI provides a list of courses or programs available for that deadline.

Before you decide to apply, make sure to do these 3 things:

- Review the eligibility criteria carefully.
- Check whether your country is eligible for the scholarship
- Check if your course fits within the degree or program goals you are interested in.

Application Procedure

1. View the EUNI website for information on:

- The scholarship offers
- the application deadline (there are no exceptions made for deadlines)
- the application and selection procedures
- the online application link and the supporting documents

2. Prepare your application and the supporting documents

3. Submit your online application via the EUNI website

With your online application, you will be asked to upload a valid identification documents (e.g. ID or Passport), and supporting documents

Selection procedure

If your application meets all the course admission requirements and the EUNI scholarship eligibility criteria, you can be nominated by the EUNI for a scholarship. EUNI will inform you about the outcome of your selection within 2 weeks.

The scholarships are awarded in a competitive selection to highly motivated individuals.

For any further questions concerning the EUNI application and selection procedures, please contact the EUNI representative. You can find contact information on <https://eti.ebulux.lu/>

Funding and management

The EUNI Scholarship Program is initiated by the EUNI Board of Directors and Board of Trustees. The required payment of administration and examination related fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Eligibility criteria

For the eligibility criteria please see the information below

1. Students must be students who are nationals and currently reside in an African, Central of South American Eastern European or Asian Country, or are refugees in another country and can prove their status.
2. Students must have access to the internet via a mobile phone or computer
3. All students must be admitted to EUNI through the normal application procedures.
4. EUNI sets strict academic standards that the students must agree to meet
5. Students must pledge to adhere to the student guidelines
6. Students who have not received an EUNI Scholarship Award before will be prioritized.

After completing the application form you may receive an email with instructions on additional documents (if any) you need to send EUNI to complete your application process. If your application is successful, you will also be asked to pay non-refundable and non-transferable commitment, administration or processing fees.

If you have received an EUNI Scholarship award before, please note that the EUNI Scholarship awards are limited and applicants who have not received the scholarship award before will be prioritized.
